

Call for essays: The Question of the Malvinas - 50 years after the Resolution 2065

The Secretary of Affairs Related to the Malvinas Islands, South Georgias, South Sandwich Islands and Surrounding Maritime Areas of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Worship of Argentina; the Sub Secretary of Management and Coordination of University Policies of the Ministry of Education of Argentina; and the Latin American Council of Social Sciences (CLACSO) invite researchers from Latin America and the Caribbean to participate in the Call for Essays "The Question of the Malvinas: 50 years after the Resolution 2065".

The call seeks to promote comprehension and interest regarding the question of the Malvinas in Latin American and Caribbean countries. More specifically, it seeks to encourage scholarly production which shows different Latin American and Caribbean social representations on the Question of the Malvinas; to develop the thought about decolonization processes and the importance of the Malvinas Islands to the whole region in this context; and to encourage the creativity in the field of written expression related to the themes linked to the Question of the Malvinas.

Up to four (4) original essays will be chosen. A first and second award will be given to two (2) essays written by Argentine authors; and another first and a second award will be given to two (2) essays written by authors coming from other Latin American and Caribbean countries. The awards include a financial component; the presentation of the essay in CLACSO's VII Latin American and Caribbean Social Science Conference "Democratic transformations, social justice and peace processes," which will be held in Medellin, Colombia, from 9 to 13 November 2015; and the publication of the essay.

DEADLINE to submit applications: 10 JUNE 2015.

For details, registration and brochure download visit:

http://www.clacso.org.ar/concursos_convocatorias/concurso_ensayos_malvinas.php