Rules of Use for the Conference and Training Room

Purpose: To establish guidelines and procedures for the general use of the Soufriere Community Access Centre (SCAC) conference and training room. These rules apply to all users but not limited to, students, general users, authorised guest, and trainees.

General Guidelines

1. No activity will be permitted which shall in any manner be potentially or directly destructive to Soufriere Community Access Centre (SCAC) or potentially or directly disruptive to the function of the Centre.
2. Groups/organizations/persons using the Centre's facilities are responsible for the actions of those persons attending their functions and must take full responsibility (which includes replacement, repair or payment for damage property, equipment or furniture) for loss or damage to any of SCAC's property, furnishings, and/or equipment.
3. Use of SCAC must be confined to the activity for which the facilities are requested. The grounds, all furniture, equipment and other property must be properly cared for and returned to a neat and orderly condition following use.
4. Furnishings may not be removed from the meeting area without permission of the ICT Officer, ICT Technician or Receptionist.
5. Group meetings, training sessions, workshop etc. must maintain a noise level that does not interfere with the normal functioning of the SCAC.
6. All computers at the SCAC are for educational use (training, research) and should be used for these purposes only.
7. Users should not be left unattended in the training room. Facilitator/trainer/teacher must always be present to supervise users.
8. Users will lock or log off the computers when the computers are not in use.
9. Users should not download any files unless otherwise instructed by SCAC Staff.
10. All computer-related problems should be reported to the ICT Officer, ICT Technician, or any SCAC staff available.
11. Smoking or alcoholic beverages are not allowed in the Centre. Food is allowed in the conference room however; no food or liquid of any kind is allowed in the training room.
12. Open flames (candles, matches, etc.) are not permitted at the SCAC.
13. The SCAC is not responsible for equipment, supplies, or any other materials owned by the organizations and used in the Centre. All items brought into the building must be removed immediately after the meeting or training sessions.
14. The SCAC is neither responsible nor liable for the theft, loss, or damage to materials, equipment, or other personal property of users.
15. Misuse of SCAC's property will result in immediate suspension of privileges and use of the Centre.
16. No storage facilities are available for users.

The SCAC reserves the right to revoke conference/training room privileges for any group it feels has not met the conditions stated in this agreement.

Reservations

Reservations can be made by telephone, emailing or walking-in up to 4 months in advance during regular business hours. The person reserving the room must complete a booking form along with a signed copy of SCAC's conference and training room use agreement to ensure final confirmation. Please note that reservations will not be confirmed unless the SCAC receives reservation forms along with a completed and signed copy of the SCAC's conference and training room agreement form. The SCAC reserves the right to turn down programs, meetings, or workshops that are unsuitable or not in keeping with the policies of the SCAC.

Special permission is required at least one week prior to meeting or training if it must start before or extend beyond regular SCAC hours (8:00a.m. – 4:30p.m)

At least 48 hours' notice is required for cancellations or postponed meetings.
